51. ENVIRONMENT

- a. A member of public has requested that the lettering 'Library Only Friday' be repainted on the Mill Lane car park as it was worn and barely visible. To be addressed by Cllr C Emmas-Williams.
- b. It was reported that someone was sinking 4 foot long stakes into the ground at the Mill Lane football pitch. This was causing concern regarding health and safety to the public – especially children playing football. Cllr G Parkes had been removing them. Also, it was noted that the pitch was getting worse because of people letting their dogs out of their cars at the car park.

- c. Cllr Emma-Williams reported that an agent would be sought for the land at Hollywell Avenue Three quotes to be obtained.

10.03.06 Information regarding location of plastic recycling bins received from AVBC. Cllr Mrs Cox reported that the holes were not big enough for 2 ltr bottles. This to be brought to the attention of the Amber Valley Environmental Services.
